January Shoot Notes

3-D season is officially underway. The January shoots are in the books. The combined total of shooters for both shoots was right at 100. This was even though the second January shoot was in an ice storm. I guess the big news is the Conservation Club will now let ITBA members join their club. Twenty dollars for non-voting membership. They have made a lot of improvements so far, and the dues will help them continue. Ron McDonald is now the new Range Director. Please refer all suggestions and complaints on target sets to Ronny Mack.

It was good to see old friends, ancient friends, and meet new friends. Y'all come on out.

THANKS to Dennis for the info!!
